

Posted on 26 February 2013
by ewfood

Prawns simmered in a coconut and Kokum curry

Ingredients

16-20 Prawns 500g
Red chilli pwd 5g
Corinader pwd 10g
Oil 25ml
Onion ,sliced 20g
Tomato paste 15g
Green chillies 3g
Coconut milk 200ml
Kokum 50g
For Goan paste:
Dry red chillies 5g
Corriander seeds 10g
Cumin seeds 7f
Turmeric powder 2g
Ginger 5g
Garlic 5g
Fresh coconut, grated 2g

Preparation

- 1 Clean and wash the prawns
- 2 Apply some salt, turmeric powder and chili powder and leave it aside
- 3 Dry roast cumin, coriander and chillies and make a paste with water and then strain
- 4 Heat oil in a heavy bottom pan add slice onion and fry until golden brown
- 5 Add in the spice paste and sauté the paste and then add in the tomato paste.
- 6 Add in the coconut milk and some water
- 7 allow it to boil.
- 8 Let the prawns simmer in the sauce till done.
- 9 Garnish with fresh coconut and serve with steamed basmati rice

Cooks Note

Also known as Goan Jhinga. Recipe for 4 persons.
Armani Ristorante, Taste of Dubai 2013.