Red Velvet Brownies

Ingredients

For the Brownie Layer 200g (7 oz) unsalted butter 390g (13 ½ oz) caster sugar 2 tsp vanilla extract 55g (2 oz) cocoa powder 1 tsp red gel paste colouring, mixed with water to make 1½ tbsp liquid 2 tsp white vinegar 4 large eggs 175g (6 oz) plain flour ½ tsp salt

For the Cream Cheese Layer 390g (13 ½ oz) full-fat cream cheese such as Philadelphia, softened 100g (3 ½ oz) caster sugar 2 large eggs ½ tsp vanilla extract

One 23 x 32cm (9 x 13in) tin

Preparation

1. Preheat the oven to 175°C (350°F), Gas mark 4. Line the tin with non-stick baking parchment.
2. To make the brownie layer, melt the butter in a medium-sized heatproof glass bowl set over, but not touching, a pan of simmering water, then stir in the caster sugar and vanilla. Beat by hand until the mix is slightly thickened, then remove from the heat.
3. Using a freestanding electric mixer with the paddle attachment or a hand-held electric whisk, mix the cocoa powder, red food colouring and vinegar with the sugar and butter mixture and beat until incorporated. Add the eggs and beat until nice and smooth, then fold in the flour and salt.
4. Pour the red velvet batter into the prepared tin, saving about 60ml (2 fl oz) of the batter for the top and setting this aside.
5. To make the cream cheese layer, beat together the cream cheese, sugar, eggs and vanilla extract until smooth.
6. Spread the cream cheese over the raw red velvet layer, carefully smoothing it evenly. Dollop bits of the reserved red velvet batter onto the cream cheese layer and, using a skewer, swirl to make patterns.
7. Bake for about 30–35 minutes, or until the top is firm to the touch and just starting to go golden at the edges. Remove from the oven and allow to cool before cutting.
